VERY REV. WILLIAM J. MURPHY, S.J.

It was a uniquely happy and hopeful occasion when Archbishop Cushing and Bishop Ryan returned to Alma Mater to exchange greetings with faculty and students. Out of doors the day was gloomy enough to bring comfort to the deepest pessimist, with snow and rain and sleet and the overcast so low that it seemed to brush the ground. Yet the impression that remained was that of a bright day. The addresses of both Prelates were inspiring, but the message of Archbishop Cushing, communicated in his second address, made to the assembled faculties at luncheon, is one that I wish to share with the Alumni.

In His Excellency's vision of the future, Chestnut Hill stands out as a brilliant center of learning in New England, a region richest in its cultural tradition. Draw a circle of about fifteen miles in circumference around Chestnut Hill and you will include such institutions as St. John's Seminary, Emmanuel College, Weston College, Regis College, more than a few seminaries and training schools of religious congregations and the probable foundation of another college. Let us imagine all these institutions moving together in one concerted plan, each retaining its own personality and traditions, yet adding something to a grand design. See the clusters of noble buildings that will arise in the campuses. Diagram the faculties which will be formed and the departments which will be organized in all branches of knowledge. From this will go out the beams of truth and power and of virtue to all of New England and beyond through affiliated schools, through centers of adult education, and through the varied associations which will group themselves around the center. The massive Tower on the Heights will be the symbol of the inspiring strength of it all.

This is the vision that makes dark days bright. Yet it is not an escapist phantasy. A solid and substantial start has already been made through the years, not without great labor and sacrifice. The part that remains to be done will not be as arduous as that which is already accomplished. Of course no stamp of the wizard's foot will crown the hill with buildings and bring into being a multitude of students and teachers. Educational institutions grow somewhat slowly — at least Catholic institutions of higher learning do. But by the loyal and inspired labors of faculty and alumni, under the dynamic leadership of our Archbishop, we shall see the plan unfold year by year. And God's Providence will not be less liberal in the years ahead than It has been in the past.

JAMES A. DORSEY, 1894

Elected President of the Law Society of Massachusetts. Graduate of Boston Latin School, Boston College and Boston University School of Law; Chairman of Board of Trustees of the Infirmary Department of City of Boston, six years, an unpaid board which ministered to the poor of Boston; Chairman of Election Commissioners, City of Boston; President, Boston College Alumni Association; President, Boston University Law School Alumni; President, Charitable Irish Society; President, Boston Catholic Cemetery Association; Chairman, Past Presidents Boston College Alumni Association; Now engaged as trial lawyer for City of Boston.

He has two sons, Captain James A., Jr., USA, '37, and Lt. Thomas F., USA, '37, who was recently wounded in action.

The following is Mr. Dorsey's biography as written by himself:

"Was graduated from Boston College a few years back. Since that time have never done much of anything worthwhile. Whatever I have done, however, have had a perfectly swell time doing it."

JOHN E. HURLEY, 1930

Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He was educated at St. Margaret's Grammar School, Boston College High School and Boston College. First baseman for the St. Mark's Holy Name Society ball team. Representative from Ward 16, Dorchester, at the State House, for two terms, from 1930-1934. In 1935 he was appointed Executive Secretary in the Department of the Attorney-General. Elected to present office by a plurality of 229,000.

He is married to the former Margaret Lee of Dorchester, and has two children, Janice and John E., Jr. He lives at 40 Glenrose Road, Dorchester.

VERY REV. JOHN J. McEENEY, S.J., 1918

Appointed December 8, 1944, Provincial of the New England Province of the Society of Jesus. Father McEeney was educated at Woburn High School and Boston College. He entered the Society of Jesus in 1918 at Woodstock-on-Hudson, New York. He studied at Poughkeepsie, Weston and Woodstock, Maryland. As a scholastic he taught the classics at Manila, P. I. He was ordained in 1930 at Weston by the late Bishop Peterson. In 1942 he spent a year in the Ascetical Studies of the Tertianship at St. Buenos Wales, England. In 1937 he became Rector of the Novitiate at Shadowbrook. In 1942 he became Rector of Fairfield Preparatory School, Fairfield, Conn., the first Jesuit school in that state.

JOHN J. SULLIVAN, 1921

Governor Leverett Saltonstall on November 15, 1944, appointed him Special Justice of the Municipal Court of the Brighton District. He attended the Frederic E. Whitney School and St. Columbkille's School, Brighton, and graduated from Boston College High School in 1917. In 1921 he received an A.B. degree from Boston College and in 1924 an LL.B. degree from Harvard Law School. For twenty years he has been associated with the law office of Badger, Pratt, Doyle & Badger, and in 1943 became a member of that firm. He has been engaged in the general practice of law, specializing in trial work. He is a Past Grand Knight of Brighton Council, Knights of Columbus, member of the St. Columbkille's Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, since 1929 President of the St. Columbkille's School Alumni Association, belongs to the Charitable Irish Society, the Brighton-Allston Post, No. 17, The American Legion, and has been active in the Brighton-Allston B. C. Club. In addition he has been serving as chairman of the Legal Advisory Board for Draft Board 38, Brighton.

CONVOCAATION

His Excellency, Most Rev. Edward F. Ryan, C.S.B., 1901, was consecrated Bishop of Burlington, Vt., January 3, by His Excellency, Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D.D., 1917, Archbishop of Boston, at the Cathedral. Assistant consecrators were Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman, D.D., Archbishop of New York, and Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, D.D., Bishop of Providence.

On February 7, Bishop Ryan was installed as the fifth Bishop of the Burlington Diocese by Archbishop Cushing. The Most Rev. Bryan J. McIntegart, Bishop of Ogdensburg, delivered the sermon.

Most Rev. Charles A. Finn, D.D., 1899, has succeeded Bishop Ryan as the pastor of the Holy Name Church, West Roxbury.

A convocation of the schools and faculties took place January 29 in the Library in honor of Archbishop Cushing and Bishop Ryan; Archbishop Cushing was given a Spiritual Bouquet, and the degree of Doctor of Letters was conferred on Bishop Ryan. (Picture, Front Cover).

The following citation was read by Very Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., President of the College:

Boston College is fast becoming a Mother of Bishops. Latest of her sons to be made a successor of the Apostles, a member of that finely chosen band that since their calling by Christ have governed the Church and ministered to Christ's lambs and sheep, is our beloved alumnus, the Most Reverend Edward Francis Ryan, Bishop of Burlington, Vermont. Born in 1879, graduated with high honors from Boston College in 1901, he passed to the American College in Rome where he was raised to the priesthood in 1905. A year later he received in Rome the Degree of Doctor of Divinity with great applause. Returning to Boston he served as curate in several parishes until the outbreak of the First World War. Then as chaplain of our Armed Forces in France, he was distinguished by his bravery and devotion. As pastor he was as eminently admired for his intellectual endowments as he was loved for his supreme gifts of soul. His zeal transcended the limits of his own parish and many Catholics in our own country and in the missions owe it to his generous gifts that they worship God in fitting dwelling places. As pastor of Holy Name Church he completed a superb edifice of extraordinary beauty, worthy to be a cathedral. Eminently successful in his priestly work in Boston, he has been called by the Holy Father to become the spiritual head of the Catholics in Vermont. He was consecrated by his fellow-alumnus, the Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing of the Class of 1917. Today his Alma Mater, proud of her distinguished son, rejoicing in his high gifts as priest and pastor, and looking forward to his fruitful labors in the episcopate, honors herself in clothing him with the dignity of Doctor of Letters.

"Long may he continue to shed lustre on his gratefully rejoicing Alma Mater."

Father Murphy addressed the following to Archbishop Cushing:

"Your Excellency: The faculties of all our schools, even many of those who are on leave of absence, have assembled this morning to be with the students for this happy greeting. We have looked forward to see the elements of our College in the postwar world. But one of the essential elements of this period we have not made the subject of a paper. It can be its own spokesman. It is yourself. We know that of our future Your Excellency will be a great part.

"All the members of the faculty and all the students, past and present rejoiced at your Excellency's elevation. Through the years we have seen Your Excellency's single minded devotion to God's cause. We have realized the significance of the bishop's mitre and pastoral staff in the hospital ward, and among little children, and inside the thick gray walls of a prison. We have beheld the renewed beauty of God's House and the splendor of His worship. We have hearkened to the stirring call to a society laboring with dignity and joy in an atmosphere of understanding charity. We have caught some glimpses of the Kingdom of God in jungle and desert and in cities and lands that once seemed far distant but are now so near, what with the graves of American youth a part of thousands of American homes. In all of these hopes Boston College, its students and professors hope to share. But more especially is she thinking of the ancient words, 'Go teach all nations.' She looks to Your Excellency as the successor of Peter and his band whom through the power of the Sacrament the Holy Ghost has made the depositary of divine truth. We divide truth into secular and divine; yet we know that it is a way of speaking. For the dynamo is full of divine significance and the Incarnation if fraught with the meaning of time.

"To Your Excellency as the guardian of truth, the College now turns, with reverence to you as its Bishop, with love, as one of its sons. And as a pledge of this affection and devotion it asks you to accept this memorial of our joyful congratulations and of prayer."

THE CRIMEAN CONFERENCE

By FRANCIS E. LOW, S

Father Low prepared the following statement for the Boston Globe this month, the day after the announcement of the decisions agreed by the Big 3 at Yalta.

The report of the Crimean conference is an amazing document, and the fulsome praise of its contents by several Senators and American editorial writers is really astounding. Actually the decisions made by the Big 3 constitute in large part a major victory for Stalin and Communism in Europe. I am convinced that the near and distant future will prove that in the former palace of the Czars at Yalta the U. S. S. R. gained a more important victory than any yet won by the Red Army.

On the surface the report appears to grant free elections, democratic forms of government and continued Allied assistance to the liberated (?) nations of Europe, particularly to Poland and Yugoslavia. The truth (however unpleasant it may seem) is that Poland as an independent nation no longer exists. It has been "taken over" by Russia, as the three Baltic nations, Lithuania, Latvia and Esthonia have already been. The real Polish Government in exile has been ignored, although England, the United States and the people of Poland all proclaimed its valid character and promised it recognition and support.

The newly proposed government will be practically the present Soviet group headed by President Bebut, a Communist puppet leader and the thinly camouflaged "democratic" Polish heads chosen by Stalin to do his bidding. Any future election in Poland or Yugoslavia or in any other Soviet sphere of influence will follow the Soviet blueprint for all its engineered elections and foreseen results.

Meanwhile Stalin awards Silesia and East Prussia to Poland, that is, to Russia. Millions of "liberated" Polish people are to be transferred to the conquered German territory (a gigantic and perilous undertaking). Other millions of Germans, their industry, their armies, and their personal worth, are to be seized, transported to Russia, or incorporated into Stalin's new and greater Red Army. The Board of Reparations will hold its sessions indefinitely in Moscow, while England, the United States, France and Russia divide and occupy various zones in what is left of Germany.

The following conclusions from the conference are based on realism, not fancy. They should be seriously debated at once here in America, especially in Congress, which alone has the right to ratify peace terms and enforce them:

1. The seeds of another war are latent in the decision just announced because of the rank injustice done to several European victims, millions of whom were steadfast in their resistance to Hitler.

2. We have effected the defeat of one military dictator only to install a keener and more determined one as the arbiter of Europe's destiny for generations to come.

3. We have paid lip service to the principles of the Atlantic Charter, while grossly violating them in effect.

Finally it may have been highly dramatic to announce the Crimean results to the world on Lincoln Day. I consider it most improper. The great American Liberator held to his ideals and suffered for them. He meant what he said when he promised a government OF, BY AND FOR THE PEOPLE. We sorely need Lincoln today, a great, courageous statesman who will not fear to rise soon and brand Stalin and the U. S. S. R. as the present leading aggressors among the nations of the world.

There was a joyous celebration in Moscow last night, ending with the triumphant singing of the Communist "Internationale," "The Star Spangled Banner" and "God Save the King." They might well have added: "God help Poland, Yugoslavia and the rest of Europe." Perhaps He is waiting for several million free, influential and patriotic Americans to lend a hand.

Because it is impossible to maintain correct military and naval addresses, the ALUMNI NEWS is sent to the home address of an alumnus in the service with the expectation that it will be forwarded. Letters received in recent months reveal that this is not being done. If you are a relative, just place a three cent stamp on the envelope after re-addressing it. Do not seal envelope. If you prefer to seal it, you must pay the rates for first class mail.

V. EVAN C. DUBOIS, S.J.

Father Dubois died February 17 after a short illness. He came to the College in 1932 as a member of the biology department, becoming head of it last year when Father Dore died. A Mass was celebrated for him on February 18 at the College by his uncle, Rev. James Dubois, S.J., of Weston College. Father Dubois entered the Society of Jesus in 1917, studying at Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Weston College and Woodstock, Md. He was ordained in 1930.

GENE A. MCCARTHY, M.D., 1884

Dr. McCarthy died January 1, and a Mass was celebrated for him January 4 at St. Michael's Church, Medford, by his grand-nephew, John W. Ryan, S.J., '30. Representing the College were Fathers Low, Smith, andweeney. Representing the Association were William J. O'Sullivan, '14, and John J. Hayes, Alumni Secretary.

Dr. McCarthy was president of the Association in 1908, and all through the years had been a good friend of the College. A few months before his death, Mr. Eugene Feely, faculty member, received a letter from him revealing the origin of this Association. It is stated:

"Two law students, Timothy Coakley and Philip Farley of the class of '84, B. C., and two medical students Frank J. Barnes, '84, and myself occasionally met at luncheon in Boston. One question that arose was 'Why isn't B. C. have an Alumni Association?' I called on Fr. Boursaud, S.J., then president, and he said if we got some of the former graduates, he would favor such a society. We got it is, mostly your friend, Dr. Barnes, got the consent of several graduates, and again we called on Fr. Boursaud. He invited us to dinner at the College, and the Alumni Association was formed. Edward J. Flynn, '81, was elected president and I treasurer."

TOWN SCHOOL

Very Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., President, has announced the appointment of Rev. Edward J. Keating, S.J., as dean of the Intown School succeeding Rev. Vincent de Paul O'Brien, S.J., who was commissioned a lieutenant in the Merchant Marine.

THE HEIGHTS

On February 5, 150 students entered the Freshman Class, 125 in Arts and Sciences, 25 in Business Administration. Included in the group are 20 veterans. The total registration is 460.

Special courses are being conducted for veterans to enable them to qualify for entrance examinations. Teaching these courses are Rev. Harold C. Kirley, S.J., who has returned from St. Louis University, and Rev. Daniel

ALUMNI NEWS

Lynch, S.J., who has returned to the classroom for the first time in several years.

Occasionally an alumnus in the service will write from some distant point voicing the sentiment he would enjoy a touch of New England weather. This sentiment is not generally held by those on the home front especially after the severe snow storm which isolated the Heights this month. Transportation broke down altogether on the Lechmere line, known by the students as the "Lurchmore" line. Only the students enjoyed the weather, and were grateful to nature for a holiday from classes.

PRISONERS LIBERATED

✚ When the American troops poured into Manila recently and freed the Japanese prisoners there, they found among them two alumni, Rev. Robert M. Sullivan, O.M.I., '36, and Rev. Bernard F. Doucette, S.J., '19. Father Sullivan had gone to Manila just after ordination in 1941. Father Doucette had been in Manila some time before being captured in 1942. There had been some uncertainty about Rev. Vincent I. Kennally, S.J., '18, but it is now known that he is also free. Just before this his relatives had received word from him from a prison camp. No word has been received from the former dean of Freshman, Rev. Russell M. Sullivan, S.J., but it is believed he is acting as chaplain for guerrilla forces hiding in the hills.

Nothing has been heard about Lieut.-Commander Lawrence J. McPeake, USN, '23, and Lieutenant George T. Trudell, USNR, '36, both of whom participated in the battle of Manila in 1942.

ALUMNI RETREAT

✚ Early notice is given of the second annual Alumni Retreat to be held from Friday, June 8, to Sunday, June 10, at Campion Hall, North Andover.

The retreat is intended primarily for the members of the anniversary classes, 1920, 1925, 1930, 1935 and 1940 as well as 1919 which inaugurated the custom last June. However members from other classes will be welcome. Make reservations with Rev. Daniel H. Sullivan, S.J., at Campion Hall, or at the Alumni office.

For the benefit of those living out of state and planning to return to the College in June, Alumni Day will be held on Monday, June 11.

BISHOPS

✚ The honors that have come to Archbishop Cushing and Bishop Ryan gave rise to the question as to how many bishops went to B. C. Rev. Martin P. Harney, S.J., had the answer, ten. In addition to Archbishop Cushing and Bishop Ryan there were: William Cardinal O'Connell, '81, Bishop of Portland and Archbishop of Boston; Most Reverend John B. De-

Dinand, S.J., '91, Bishop of Jamaica; Most Reverend Thomas A. Emmet, S.J., '96, Bishop of Jamaica; Most Reverend James A. Walsh, M.M., who attended the College in 1884, founder of the Maryknoll Order.

MONSIGNORI RECENTLY APPOINTED

One of the first acts of Archbishop Cushing was to elevate several Alumni to the dignity of domestic prelate with the title of monsignor. They are:

Very Rev. Walter J. Furlong, '21, St. Clement's Hall, Brighton; Very Rev. John J. Wright, '31, Diocesan House, Brighton; Rt. Rev. Edmund D. Daly, '99, St. Patrick's Rectory, Lawrence; Rt. Rev. William B. Finigan, '00, Blessed Sacrament Rectory, Cambridge; Rt. Rev. James F. Kelly, '93, Our Lady of Lourdes, Jamaica Plain; Rt. Rev. George V. Leahy, '89, Sacred Heart Rectory, Manchester-by-the-Sea; Rev. James H. Phalan, '96, St. Joseph's Rectory, Somerville; Rt. Rev. Thomas R. Reynolds, '05, Rector, Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston; Rt. Rev. Daniel C. Riordan, '79, St. Patrick's Rectory, Watertown; Rt. Rev. Michael Scanlan, '95, St. Rose's Rectory, Chelsea; Rev. Patrick J. Waters, '04, St. Brigid's Rectory, South Boston.

ST. LOUIS CLUB

Three alumni in St. Louis, Missouri, comprising one of the smallest B. C. Clubs called the St. Louis Club. Dr. William A. Fitzgerald, '27, recently appointed to the librarianship of the St. Louis University of Medicine; Rev. Albert E. Goddard, M.M., '35, Rector of the Maryknoll Community; George F. Donovan, '25, President of Webster College.

Ryder Honored

A testimonial dinner was given for Jack Ryder December 13 at the Hotel Lenox in recognition of twenty-five years of service as Track Coach.

About four hundred attended, and it was generally thought that a thousand would have been present if the event occurred in peacetime. The varsity "B" was awarded to Jack, and a sum of money from the B. A. A. and the alumni.

Among those at the head table were: John Curley, '13, Graduate Manager of Athletics; Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., '16, President of the College; George Carens, Boston Traveler; Jerry Nason, Boston Globe; Nathaniel Hasenfus, '22; James W. Driscoll, '22, I. C. A. A. A. Champion, Track Captain 1921 and 1922; Rev. Stephen A. Mulcahy, S.J., Dean of the College; William Arthur Reilly, '25, Toastmaster, Member of Track Team; Fred Schmertz, Chairman Games Committee, Milrose A. A.; Edward Farrell, former Harvard Track Coach; Oscar F. Hedlund, formerly World's One-Mile Record Holder, Olympic Champion; Francis J. Facey, '18, New England Association, A. A. U.; Col. James A. Caffrey, '22; Thomas J. Kanaly, Boston Athletic Association; Col. Walter A. Brown, President of the Boston Athletic Association; William J. Dempsey, '20, Track Captain 1920; Robert Simmons, '19, Track Captain 1917; Rev. John O'Callaghan, S. J., Faculty Director of Athletics; Herbert Finnegan, '25, Member of Track Team.

The dinner committee included: Nothaniel J. Hasenfus, '22, Chairman; William Arthur Reilly, '25, toastmaster; Louis R. Welch, '25, Reservations; Herbert Finnegan, '25, Publicity; J. Robert Brawley, '20, James W. Driscoll, '22, William J. Dempsey, '20, Edmond Murphy, '24, Joseph McKenney, '27, Philip Dillon, '25, Frances A. Reynolds, '16, Thomas J. Kanaly, B. A. A., Col. B. C. IN THE MARIANAS

One of the biggest groups of alumni gathered on one of the islands of the Mariana group on February 1 for a B. C. night. The whole affair was arranged by Jim Ronayne, '45, and Paul Burns, '44. It was so successful that another meeting was planned for March 17, but it probably won't take place, because most of the men are Marines, and are engaged in the Iwo invasion.

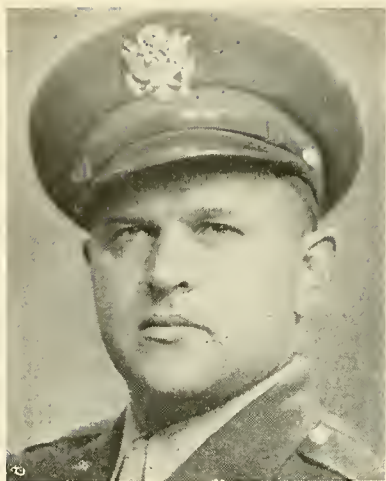

The men met at Fort Santa Cruz. B. C. songs were sung with music by Bob Mitchell (who did not attend the College) whose choir sang in "Going My Way." Contributing to the entertainment were two Holy Cross grads, Ed Burke, who pitched for the Cross around 1923, and Paul Mullaney, as well as Marty Sheridan, Boston Globe reporter.

Those present were: Jim Ronayne, '45, Ed Nixon, '45, Stan Regan, '44, Walter Brady, '44, Jim Kelleher, '44, Leo Sullivan, '43, Dan Dunn, '42, Joe Quilty, '39, Jack Canney, '38, Joe Lynch, '39, Joe Walsh, '39, John Sergeant, '43, John Murphy, '38, Paul Burns, '44, Father Thomas Sennott, '33, "Red" Noonan, '43, Everett Noonan, '40, Frank Zeimet, '39, Bob De Giacomo, '43, Dr. Bill Hafferty, '29, Charlie Calgagni, '44, Bill Desmond, '43, Jim Markham, '45, Bob Attridge, '42, and Dan Barry, '38. Vin Robinson, '43, had to leave three days before the session took place.

B. C. IN EGYPT

Private George Norberg, '39, writes of a smaller meeting in Egypt where those present were himself, Lt. Gerry Murphy, '39, Art McCourt, '41, H. Cincotti, '41, and Al Dumond, '42. George said, "We parted charter members of the B. C. Club of Egypt, next meeting to be held under the Towers in the near future."

CHAPLAINS

☛ Serving as chaplains are 130 priests who are either Alumni or faculty members. That they are widely scattered all over the world is evident from information received the last two months.

Rev. Charles F. Engewald (Army), '23, has been awarded the Bronze Star for services in Europe. Rev. Joseph P. Mahoney (Army), '29, was wounded, not seriously, in Germany, and has been given the Purple Heart and Bronze Star. Rev. Edward S. Galvin (Army), '30, also received the Bronze Star for bravery in Belgium. Rev. Edmund G. Barry (Army), '23, was cited for bravery in France.

Rev. John F. Monahan (Army), '10, died in December. He entered the Army in 1918, serving in Siberia. He remained in the Army until his death when he held the rank of colonel assigned to the office of Chief of Chaplains in Washington.

In England, succeeding in meeting B. C. men wherever he goes is Rev. Francis V. Sullivan, S.J. (Navy), formerly in charge of athletics. Meeting in London in November or December were: Revs. George W. Casey, '16, George W. McHugh, '29, Francis J. Harkins, '29, and James J. McManus, '29, all in the Army.

Just entering the service are: Rev. Vincent de Paul O'Brien, S.J., dean of the Intown School, who is a chaplain in the Merchant Marine, and Rev. Carl H. Morgan, S.J., professor of Mathematics, who is a lieutenant in the Army.

Rev. Thomas F. Brosnan (Army), '34, celebrated Midnight Mass in a steel hangar at the Air Service Command Base in the jungles of Assam, India. On Saipan, Rev. James D. M. Laughlin, S.J. (Navy), formerly on the Business School faculty, celebrates Mass for the Seabees in a chapel built by them. When Captain David Hockman, USA, '30, went to Mass in Dutch New Guinea recently, he was pleasantly surprised to discover that the celebrant was Rev. John J. Long, S.J. (Army), former dean of the College who had just arrived there. Stationed on a battleship in the Pacific is Rev. William J. Kenealy, S.J. (Navy), former dean of the Law School, whose duty it is during enemy action to act as a broadcaster telling "the hundreds of sweating, anxious boys below decks what's going on topside." Enthusiastic B. C. meetings in Hawaii are due in part to Rev. Ernest P. Pearsall (Army), '31.

The first chaplain heard from in the Philippines was Rev. Bede Cameron, C.P. (Army), '27. The next was Rev. John J. Regan (Army), '35, who landed on Leyte the first day of the invasion. Describing a Mass there a newspaper article stated: "The celebrant was the Rev. John J. Regan, of the Archdiocese of Denver, an Army chaplain. The altar had been set over a lush carpet of grass, with the great jungle in the background for a reredos. The congregation of officers and enlisted men knelt in the mud on the edge of a newly captured airport.

"As Father Regan elevated the chalice for the consecration, a Japanese plane sped low over the area and sprayed the far side of the landing strip with machine gun bullets. The men gazed at it for a moment but no one moved. They simply bowed their heads reverently while the Mass proceeded."

When Manila was entered, present was Rev. William J. Leonard, S.J., (Army), former professor of English.

JOHN S. KEOHANE

12 Acacia Avenue, Chestnut Hill

 Our recent semi-annual Get-together was one of the most interesting that we have ever had. World wide problems were discussed and settled. Due to our age, however, this war is being fought by us vicariously, by our sons and nephews. We are looking forward to another party in May. Those present included Dr. Frank Devlin, Al Shaughnessy, Jack Kapples, Ed Sullivan, Dan Hurl, John Mahoney, Dr. Reid,—Fathers Joe Sullivan from Weston College, Tom Heagney, Jim Welch, Pat Dawson, Pat Higgins from Holy Cross, and Jack Joyce. Also present were the permanent class officers, Father Eric MacKenzie, President; Bill O'Sullivan, Secretary; and Jahn S. Keohane, Treasurer. We hope that the others, unavoidably absent, will be with us in May.

Congratulations and best wishes to Father Tom Murphy on his promotion to Auburndale and Father Pat Dawson on his promotion to Nantasket.

PHILIP J. BOND

18 Houston Street, West Roxbury

 The class wishes to express its deepest sympathy to William R. Duffey in the death of his brother, Francis A. Duffey, formerly Principal of the Quincy School District of Boston.

Right Reverend Richard J. Quinlan, S.T.L., L.L.D., Parish Priest, St. John's Parish, Winthrop, has recently been appointed Diocesan Director of the Priests' Eucharistic League.

Reverend James F. Grimes, formerly Parish Priest of St. John the Baptist Parish, Essex, has been transferred to Parish Priest of St. Thomas Aquinas' Parish, Bridgewater.

Congratulations and hearty best wishes for future success are extended to the following priests of the Class recently appointed Parish Priests: Reverend Jahn W. Garrick, formerly assistant at St. Joseph's Parish, Medford, to Parish Priest of St. John the Baptist Parish, Essex.

Reverend Maurice J. Flynn, formerly assistant at St. Thomas' Parish, Jamaica Plain, to Parish Priest of Sacred Heart Parish, Graton.

Reverend Joseph J. Leonard, formerly assistant at St. John's Parish, North Cambridge, to Parish Priest of St. Mary's Parish, Chelmsford.

Father Jahn Allstan, Pastor of St. Michael's Church, Bedford, is kept busy as chaplain of the Veterans' Hospital in the same town.

Paul L. Flynn, President of the Class of 1915, wishes to remind the members of their approaching thirtieth anniversary of graduation. Each member may expect soon a letter giving plans for a suitable gift to the College in recognition of this event.

1916

JAMES L. O'BRIEN

41 Pandred Circle, Jamaica Plain

 We regret to announce the death of two of our classmates, Joe McOwen and Frank Duffey. Joe McOwen was a real loyal member of the class and only two days before his death, he sent us a telegram regretting his inability to be present with us at the Annual Banquet. Frank Duffey had to leave work just before Christmas and apparently was improving when God called him. Remember them in your prayers.

At our Annual Banquet, held on December 28th, it was voted that the class should make George C. Carens of the Traveler, an honorary member of the Class of '16.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Jack O'Keefe on the recent loss of his brother.

Chaplain Gerald Fitzgerald's new address is:

A. G. S. F. R. S.

Miami Beach, Florida.

Father Ed Carrigan is now pastor of St. Ann's Church, Keansbury, N. J. Do you remember Jahn McNamara? He's a prominent physician and is located at 114 Weir Street, Taunton. Father Bill Deacey has been transferred to the Augustinian Academy, Grimes Hall, Staten Island, N. Y.

Bill Murphy's son, Paul, was recently commissioned an ensign in the Navy. Another son is in the V-12 program at Northwestern.

Fred Gillis has been appointed to the National Safety Council to serve on a national committee to study problems in safety education.

Father George Casey, now in France, wrote an interesting account of his experiences as a chaplain aboard a troopship.

A Lieutenant Edwin Daly Scholarship has been established at B.C. by Ed's father.

Frank Roche is the Senior Vice-Commander of the Disabled Veterans of America.

Father Daniel Donovan has been appointed Dean of the Holy Name Societies of Plymouth County.

The class extends its sympathies to Frank Woods on the death of his father.

We've added a new pastor to our list: Father Lyman Merrill, Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Sharon. May God bless him and help him in his new field.

And another, congratulations and best wishes to Reverend John N. Cunningham, formerly assistant at St. Rose's Parish, Chelsea, Parish Priest of St. Thomas' Parish, Millis.

 His Excellency, Archbishop Cushing received a delegation of the class at the Archbishop's House, Lake Street, on the afternoon of Christmas Eve. A spiritual Bouquet was presented to the Archbishop from the members of the class. His excellency expressed his appreciation, reminisced with the group and showed his classmates through the parlors of his new home. He presented each one with a rosary and an autographed picture of himself. Those present were: Fr. Tony Lavery, Fr. Bert Shea, Jack Dayle, Jack Flynn, Frank Heanue, John Mahoney, Ed. Tracy, Walter Durnan, Ralph Quinn, Joe Dee, Major Jack McCarty, John Hennessey, Matt Mealy and your humble scribe. It is to be regretted that Paul Waters who had served on the committee making the plans was in Texas visiting his son who was at Camp Hood.

Father Tony Lavery had offered his quarters at the Cenacle as a meeting place for the boys before they went to the Archbishop's House. A surprise was in store for him because he was presented with an expression of appreciation from the class for the years of service he had rendered in keeping the boys together and giving them the "touch" for the War Fund and other enterprises.

Maj. Jack McCarty interprets legal phases of the Selective Service Regulations at State Headquarters.

Maj. Charley Sharkey, Transportation Corps, is Labor Relations Officer, in the Boylston Street office. Truck strikes provide Charley with unnecessary reminders that he's in the Army and that there's a war on.

Father Bob Sheridan, S. J., chaplain on hospital ships returning with wounded from Europe, was in Boston recently. One of his trips brought him into contact with prisoners of war.

Father Joe Keenan has recently suffered the loss of his sister Elizabeth, Mrs. John E. King of Worcester. Mrs. King was at one time a teacher in the Boston schools. To Father Joe and to the members of his family we extend our most sincere sympathy. Father Keenan's troopship has been transferred from the Pacific to the Atlantic. He is enthusiastic in his work with troops going over and with wounded and prisoners returning.

Clarence Day Harrigan who made us gasp in former days when he was a high jumper must be pleased to see a member of his rifle and pistol club under the dome of the State House. Clarence has been interested in sharpshooting for years and claims that Gov. Tobin has a good eye, a steady hand and the poise necessary for a marksman.

Bob O'Brien would be a proud father today were he spared to see his boy Bob Jr., recently commissioned in the Navy at Northwestern University. Bob pioneered in aviation, was a flyer in the last war and as supervisor of aviation for the Commonwealth was the first state inspector of aviation in the country.

Jack Fleming must be lonesome for Boston from the tone of his letters from Houston. It may be that this is the low point of the year for bank auditors. Then again what happened to Jesse Jones might be upsetting Texans. His sister, Gertrude, has been promoted to captain, ANC, in England.

Father Francis Caffrey, M.M., is the pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, Honolulu, Hawaii, erected with money contributed by servicemen before they left for Saipan.

 News is rather difficult to gather in Boston, yet Bill Cashin manages to learn about our classmates in Del Monte, California, at the Naval Training School. The following is an excerpt from a recent letter:

"By strange coincidence I was invited to the Salinas Chamber of Commerce annual dinner on December 28th. The feature of the evening was a speaker named Colonel Walter Clear. I was surprised and delighted to see him, and by another strange coincidence his home is about three miles from Del Monte. He was over here to visit me and we had a grand reunion. Incidentally, Warren, I believe, has about the best war record of any man in the class of 1918 other than Jack Shea. It is interesting to note that Clarence Pike is now a four-striper in the regular Navy, and Dan Harkins and yours truly were recently promoted to full commanders in the Navy. By a strange coincidence our ranks were both dated back to August 28, 1943. So much for the boys of 1918."

 For the second time the class boasts of a superintendent of schools being elected from among its members. John Tobin was recently elected to head the Cambridge school system. John is a former president of the class and former president of the Alumni Association. John has been associated with the Cambridge schools since his B. C. days. His election is no surprise to his classmates who know his many fine qualities. As John Tobin's assistant superintendent, Charles Harrington of this class was elected. Charlie also has been connected with the Cambridge schools since graduation. The team of Tobin and Harrington still carries on even as it did in undergraduate days. (cf the Harrington write-up in the 1919 Sub Turri.)

Our other school superintendent is James Hanley,—Dr. Hanley by grace of Brown University. Jim is superintendent of the Providence schools. His reputation in school circles grows with the years.

It may be of little interest to members of the class personally but it may interest their sons to know that Fred-erick J. Shea is the manager of Area One Office, Veterans' Administration. Fred is the number one man in the administration of the G. I. Bill of Rights for the entire New England area. His office is at 17 Court Street, Boston, and he has all the answers to questions about veterans.

Death has again taken one of our former members, Charles McCool, who died in December. Charlie did not finish his course with us but his friendliness and loyalty won us all. Since 1919 he was always interested in the College and the Class. He was ever faithful to the class activities and his humor added a lot to our meetings. A delegation called at his home to express the sympathy of the class. May God grant him eternal rest!

This correspondent's son has joined the Jebs. He is in his second year of the Jesuit Novitiate at Shadowbrook, Lenox, Mass. There are, no doubt, other 1919-ers who have sons and daughters too who are doing things which would be of interest to the rest of us. How about sending a line to your reporter? Don't be afraid to boast a little about your offspring!

Major John Mulvey, AC, is stationed at the Army Air Field, Pratt, Kansas. Captain Henry F. Barry, AC, is stationed at the Army Air Field, Mountain Home, Idaho.

Lieutenant William Reardon is with the Army in Paris.

Don't forget—1919 has two affairs scheduled for 1945—a class dinner as soon as Jim Riley can get away from the station stove in Lowell, and the second annual retreat at Campion Hall in the spring. Frank Roland will tell you when. Ask those who were there last year whether you can afford to miss this retreat.

 Father Walter J. Furlong has received another promotion. He now has the title of Very Reverend. Monsignor Furlong and Father Leroy V. Cooney, D.D., gave talks in the series of Sermon Courses given at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross.

Mark F. Russo was recently appointed to the Overseers of Public Welfare. Mark's son, Richard, entered the Freshman Class at Boston College, February 5, from Boston Latin School, where Mark is a master.

Jerry Mahoney heard from John J. (Swede) Sullivan recently. Swede is still in Mobile, Alabama.

Jerry also reports that John Ambrose

Flynn wishes to be remembered to all his classmates. Likewise, Danny Atwater.

Linus Callen has had an addition to his family. Congratulations.

Jack Mahoney is now residing in Egypt, Massachusetts.

Walter Cremen is President of the Council of Presidents of Boston School Organizations.

Jerry Mahoney and Henry Ford attended the induction ceremonies of John Sullivan as Special Justice of the Brighton Court.

We are sorry to record the decease of the popular Edward (Duke) Pendergast, who passed away on January 10, 1945, after being discharged from the service in December. We extend the sympathy of the class to his family.

We also extend our sympathy to Dr. Jimmy Danahue, whose father passed away recently.

Many of the former pupils of the beloved Father Francis X. Talbot, S. J., enjoyed his talk in January before the Catholic Alumni Sodality.

Jerry Mahoney states that 69 members of the class donated $2456.00 to the Loyalty Fund. Most of the credit should go to hard-working Jerry.

We should like to know the addresses of Joe Healy, John H. V. McGroth, Jimmy O'Brien, Ed Quinlan and Frank Quinlan.

Father David McDonald is Chief of Chaplains in the 10th Naval District. Under the coaching of Luke Urban, Durfee High School of Fall River is making a marvelous record in football, basketball and baseball. Last fall in football Luke's team was undefeated, and won over its rival, New Bedford High School, 52-0. The basketball team has won eleven straight games so far this season. Prospects for the baseball season are very bright. Good work, Luke, and we hope some of your stars matriculate at B.C.

NATHANIEL J. HASENFUS

15 Kirk Street, West Roxbury

 Corporal William Whall has returned from England, and has joined the New York Power Co. as an attorney, and has settled down in Marblehead with Mrs. Whall.

Paul Duffley has so acclimated himself to country life that he is a candidate for Town Assessor of Canton. Stephen Velardo has resigned as Director of the Roxbury Neighborhood House after twenty-five years of happy community service. On the occasion of his retirement, he was given a banquet and was elected a member of the Board of Directors. The son of Mayor Arthur Frawley of Lynn was injured in a coasting accident in Lynn.

Two members of the class are serving as evening school principals in the Boston School Department—your correspondent at South Boston High and John Meade in the Elementary Evening Schools.

Lieutenant George McKim has been transferred to Cumberland, Maryland, where he has charge of prisoners of war.

Robert Walsh of the firm Maginnis and Walsh has been appointed a member of the faculty of Emmanuel College. Paul Ryan, end under Brickley and Cavanaugh, is operating his own rubber business in his native Needham.

Major Ted Madden, also a member of Ryan's team, is back from a long term as a flier with Jimmy Doolittle. What a varied career Ted has had—flier with Doolittle in World War I, hero of the B.C.-H.C. game in 1919, proprietor of the college store in 1920, judge in Wyoming in the twenties, proprietor of a large golf course in the thirties, and with Doolittle again in 1943-44.

Reverend John A. Risacher, S.J., of Durham, North Carolina, spent a week in Boston recently and visited the homes of several of his former pupils. The second son of '22 to enter the College is Daniel Hayes, Jr. Son Dan graduated from B.C. High in January in time to enroll in the new Freshman Class.

FRANCIS L. FORD

26 Ellison Avenue, Dorchester

 Spelled backwards it's Erateal Sunday, but since none of us is backwards, we'll spell it correctly forwards as Laetare Sunday, March 11, in this year of 1945. It simply means that to class members the annual Communion Breakfast will be held on the Heights, keeping unbroken a tradition that is now a few years over a score. Even if you fail to read it in this spot, you will hear from us in good time to make arrangements for your wanted presence. It's a sacred date—also holy, and wholesome. We note the military honor to our classmate, Chaplain Edmund G. Barry, for exploits in France. On his way to conduct Mass for the 102nd Cavalry in late August, outside Paris his driver was hit by three diving planes. After administering the last rites, Father Barry continued on his way. He has a brother, Francis, a captain at Soipan.

Another one of our classmates and a chaplain, Captain Charles F. Engewald, is highly praised in a dispatch to the Boston Globe by Iris Carpenter for his work with the 117th Regiment of the 30th Division in the area of St. Vith which was captured by the Yanks. It runs: "Fr. Engewald, six feet of Irish good humor, is usually wisecracking somewhere not far behind the guns. Today he was at the battalion aid station, located in all that was left of the living room of what had once been a pleasant gray stone house with a view over some of the loveliest country you could imagine."

Fr. Engewald himself says of the fighting Yanks, "It's a miracle they stand it, and there is not enough one can say in praise of this ordinary American soldier who goes through so much with so little fuss. He is one grand guy."

And the same goes for you, Father Charlie.

Lt. Owen A. Gallagher, USNR, is now returned to inactive duty after his long service in the South Pacific. He has been appointed Naval Aide on the official staff of Governor Maurice Tobin, and, in all likelihood, will resume his practice of law.

Our last notes missed by a few picares the announcement that R. Gaynor Wellings had been promoted to Lieutenant-Commander, USNR, and is still stationed at Cape May. Congratulations.

Dick Rockett of Marblehead, Mass., is now chairman of the Board of Selectmen of that town. He had as guest speaker recently at the Parent-Teachers gathering, our own Gerry Coughlin.

Gerry also wrote the parodies for a dozen songs which were sung at the January shindig of the famous Clover Club.

We didn't tell you before that our treasurer, Ed Dullea, is now head of the History Department of the High School of Practical Arts in Boston. Good work, Ned.

Lt. James Reardon, USNR, has been heard of recently in the South Pacific theatre of activity.

Jack Heaphy's Dedham High School football team was one of the few undefeated aggregations of the State. It was banqueted recently by loyal and appreciative citizens.

Our sincere condolence goes out to Cece McGoldrick on the death of his mother which occurred the week before Christmas. Requiescat in Pace.

Tony Camerford is still doing good work in his connection with the Probation Department of the State Welfare Board, working out of East Boston.

Thanks to Navyman Johnny Keyes, for his thoughtful Christmas card.

Walter Mayo's oldest boy has been reported missing over Germany. We hope that Walter will receive good news soon about him from the War Department.

WILLIAM ARTHUR REILLY

14 Arborway, Jamaica Plain

 This is the 20th anniversary of our graduation. It has been suggested that a Retreat be conducted at Andover over a week-end in June and that on Alumni Day we have a family party to which the wives and children of members would be invited for a luncheon and afternoon of recreation; the evening to be spent at the College to witness the Alumni Show. A Class meeting will be held to discuss this subject. Meanwhile, those not in the vicinity of Boston are invited to write and express their views on these proposals.

George Paul Smith, agency director at Worcester for the New York Life Insurance Company, has assumed the important position of agency supervisor in the State Mutual Life Insurance Company of Worcester. George was President of the Boston Life Underwriters' Association in 1939 and two years later was chosen President of the General Agents' and Life Managers' Association of Boston, following which he became President of the Massachusetts State Association of Life Underwriters. At the present time he is State Chairman of the Massachusetts Life Underwriters' War Bond Committee and is National Committeeman for Massachusetts in the National Underwriters' Association.

Mayor John E. Kerrigan of Boston has as one of his secretaries our Classmate Frank Leovey. For several years Frank has been secretary to the Boston City Council and is thus well qualified for his new assignment.

Seen About Town: Daniel A. Lynch (Park Square Building); Daniel J. Lynch (Clover Club); Father John Keahane (Parker House); Bill Dillan (Fire Headquarters); Al Hyland (Thompson's Spa any noontime); Fred Mahony (Parker House); Neil O'Callahan (home from New York City for Christmas); Pat Mahoney—first time in twenty years, (Ryder Dinner); Huck Finnegan (every night on the sport page).

Captain William A. Botemon, MC, has recently returned from service in Africa and Sicily and has reported to the Cushing General Hospital, Framingham. Before Captain Botemon came to Cushing because of recurrent malaria and injuries received in a tank accident, he was a patient at Ashford General Hospital, White Springs, Virginia.

 Condolences are extended to the family of William Kelly who died January 15. He was the City Clerk of Newburyport.

Walter Morris has received an honorable discharge from the Navy and is practising law again.

Lt. Al Leonard, AC, is now at Santa Ana AAB, California.

Dick Finn is now living in West Roxbury. He's in the insurance game. Saw Angus MacNeil at Alumni Solidarity this month.

1927

FRANCIS X. SULLIVAN

51 Presentation Road, Brighton

 Father George Callahan, a chaplain in the Navy, has seen action at New Guinea, Saipan and Guam.

Reverend George W. Comber, MM.

is now Superior of the Major Seminary at Maryknoll, New York.

Father John E. Bowen is a curate at St. Joseph's Church, Quincy. On the side, he does a little writing. It's good, too.

Paul Dalton, if he isn't in the service, is with the State Department of Public Welfare.

Ed Dumas is teaching in Lynn.

George Keaney has been teaching in Lawrence. Recently he was granted a year's leave to write for a New York paper.

Don McIsaac is our top naval man, a full commander. He is with a naval aviation unit of the Fleet.

Father Joe Quane, S.J., is still at Holy Cross.

John Lynch, currently teaching in Boston, is one of our ace bachelors. Rumor has it that John has everything with which to make a happy home but—a wife.

At B.C., we used to get J. E. Sullivan, Revere, mixed up with J. E. Sullivan, Beachmont. In order to help us out, J. E., Beachmont, has moved to Ashmont. He has been associated with the N. E. Telephone Company for 15 years in the Commercial Department. At present he is manager of the Wellesley - Needham - West Roxbury District. The Revere John is now a lieutenant-commander in the Navy stationed with a Naval Aviation unit at Pearl Harbor. (A long way from Revere Beach.)

Flavel Ray has a fine position with the James Thomas Chirurg Advertising Agency.

That is all, but how about a class reunion in April? Write, call or wire if you are interested.

LLOYD L. DOYLE

279 Bowdoin Street, Dorchester

The annual dinner of the Class of '28 was held at the Lobster Claw, Boston, Saturday, February 3, 1945. The arrangements were made by the committee—Chairman Fred McMenimen, Owen Dooley, Jack Daherty and Ken Minihon. Father Harney, S.J., was the guest speaker. The response from the class was very gratifying. Over 100 cards were returned expressing regrets, out of town, in the service or hearing confessions. The addresses of some of our classmates are as follows:

Lieutenant Bill Cashman,
AC, 0922672
7916 S. Elizabeth Street,
Chicago, Illinois.

Lieutenant Walter W. Breen, P.I.O.
Camp Butner,
Durham, North Carolina.

Lieutenant Tam O'Brien, USNR
Pre-Flight School,
Athens, Georgia.

Lieutenant Paul A. McSwiney
HDGS. 30th E. T. Bn. ASFTC,
Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Lieutenant John E. O'Laughlin
Maxwell Field,
Montgomery, Alabama.

Lieutenant Emery J. E. Zirpola
Camp Calten,
San Diego, California.

Lieutenant F. E. L'Ecuyer (S), USNR
1st Naval District HDQT.,
150 Causeway Street, Boston.

Lieutenant Commander Jerome P. Gill, Chaplain, USN
Norman Air Base,
Oklahoma.

Corporal Paul J. McCorty,
ASN, 31425902
Co. A 2nd Bn. 1 Reg.
Fort George G. Meade,
Maryland.

Drop these fellows a line. They are classmates, and they could receive no bigger boost than a letter from one of us.

A committee has been appointed to plan for a Communion Breakfast at the College sometime after Easter. Chairman, Dr. Bob Donovan, Jack Ryder, Warren Fitzgerald, John McDevitt and Dr. Paul Hinchey. Look for the notice in the newspapers.

George Corcoran is Postmaster P. J. Connolly's right-hand man. He is now at the Federal Building and is quite a rib artist.

Warren Fitzgerald came in from Belmont—not Faneuil—good old Mr. Fitz. Still Registrar of Deeds.

A new contact has been made—Schlitz Beer—by case only—see Andy Sullivan, member of the Bald Club. Up from Peabody, Bill Bresnahan and Chris Lynch were talking over old times.

The Squire of Lowell, Connie O'Donnell, the C of C man is working on a special appointment for Dick Candan.

The Real Estate Department was represented by Frank Phelan who covers Middlesex County, and Dan Driscoll, Suffolk County.

Our most loyal ex-man, Tim Cranin, invited all the boys to see him before March 15—Internal Revenue Official. School Superintendents—John McDevitt, Waltham, and John Herlihy, Chelsea. The latter is a member of the Bald and Grey Hair Club.

I have lost my competitive classmate, Ed Becherer. He left Practor and Gamble and is now with a Biological Research Laboratory.

Jack Barry and Jae Carty represented the Brighton clientele. "Apples" is one of the vets of the Class.

Lieutenant Fred L'Ecuyer represented the military side. Captain John McGillivray, just back from England, was expected but couldn't make it.

Owen Dooley took care of the rebuttal side of things; especially that herd through Dorchester.

Mattapan sent its representative—good old Narmy Steele—only five now.

The "Pegler" of the Class, Bernie McCabe, was there selling the "Tablet".

Jack Ryder, our public relations man—almost gave us the works. His date line was lost.

The family championship ended in a tie:

Dr. Bob Donovan—6

Dr. Paul Hinchey—6

Jerry Houghton is teaching in Somerville. Terry Martin, another bald eagle, buzzed with Bunk Driscoll, now with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and Jawn Daherty, the system man, checked out perfect.

Big Ed O'Brien and Jim Fitzgerald were looking over the manpower situation and decided otherwise.

Our friend Jim Keith, bald eagle, and Al Drugon came in from Brackton and Lowell. That's class spirit.

Lefty Shea, now from Malden, Babe Daley and Smokey Kelleher, another ex-vet, represented the Sports Department.

Mal McLoud, Johnny Cahill, Arthur Downey seemed to have quite a con-flab reminiscing.

Johnny Mantle, the Miltonite, is on the legal staff at Lever Brothers.

Pete Corey, our secretary, is now chief lay-out man in the Advertising Department for United Drug. How much discount, Pete?

Dick "Monsignor" Candan is being considered for big things. Lowell Chamber of Commerce please note. Ken Minihon, our expert statistician, gave us the inside on the Social Security angle, and a very good inside on another angle. Why not run for School Committee-man out there in Weston?

The Closs expresses its deepest sympathy to Jim Duffy on the death of his mother and father.

Staff Sergeant Billy Harrington is in the Army Air Corps located somewhere in Burma.

Lieutenant John J. McLoughlin, USNR, was married in December to the former Miss Emma Lantz of Arlington. He had been on duty for 18 months in the Southwest Pacific.

Joe Carty become the father of a third child in December.

Father Frank Maron, who lives within the hallowed precincts of the Cathedral, has been Associate Editor of The Pilot for the last three years. The revival of the diocesan organ under Archbishop Cushing is giving Father Frank's efforts a wider circle of appreciative readers.

JOHN J. SPENCER

125 Corey Street, West Roxbury

 The annual class dinner was held as usual on the Thursday after Christmas at the Hotel Lenox, with more than 40 present, including some who had not been in attendance for years. A delegation from the Navy included Lieutenant Commander John J. B. Bornwell, who is en route to the Pacific following two years of service with the Naval Air Command in the Atlantic area.

Another Navy man was Lieutenant Thomas Leo O'Connell, Providence ear, nose and throat specialist, who had just returned from service in a Naval hospital in England. Also from England was Lieutenant Francis McNamara, of Melrose, who saw more than a year of service as a surgeon in England.

Edward "Pat" Murphy was elected class president for 1945 by acclamation. With typical modesty he attempted to decline the honor, but his protestations of unworthiness were drowned in the prolonged cheering which followed his nomination and speedy election. He succeeded President Robert F. Buck. A new office, that of sergeant-at-arms, was created, and Attorney Henry M. Leen during a brief absence from the chamber was chosen viva voce.

Congressman John W. McCormack, majority leader of the National House, was a visitor from an adjoining chamber where he was delivering an address, and spoke briefly. Senator David I. Walsh, also a speaker next door, was serenaded with Holy Cross songs under the direction of class cheer leaders.

Leo Shea, of Revere, entertained the group with songs and stories and led community singing.

Another Navy visitor was Lieutenant Robert Hughes, of Brighton.

"Bud" Dawer, star end and one of the long line of Boston College famous punters, now a benedict and living in West Roxbury.

"Bill" McCann, the enterprising book salesman and father extraordinary, made his first visit to the dinner in years, having managed to postpone on annual business trip which ordinarily interferes.

Dr. Frank Sullivan, Cambridge medico, had his evening interrupted by the arrival of the stork at a patient's home.

Gerry Trepanier another seldom-seen visitor.

The class was saddened by the absence of so many of its clerical members, including Rev. Charles "Chick" Glennon, German prisoner, who are serving as chaplains throughout the world.

The sympathy of the class was extended to Lieutenant Leo P. O'Keefe, S.J., on the death of his brother, Timothy.

Dr. William F. Flynn, of Milton, permanent honorary president of the class, present as always, although a trifle late.

Attorneys Edward U. Lee and John J. Mahoney, in customary excellent voices, took leading parts in the songs and cheers.

Henry Keenan took a leading part in presentation of a solemn "Te Deum", never before sung in this country, at the consecration of Bishop Edward F. Ryon as Bishop of Burlington, Vt., at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross. Bernie Kilroy, present East Boston High School coach, represented the Eastern Champion football team of 1928, at the dinner. Brother "Kewpie" still wearing Uncle Sam's olive drab and engaged in athletic work.

John Cheever Kelley, the poet, is connected with the White Mountain Power Company and is making his home in Jackson, N. H. Active as ever, Jack conducts an orchestra in his spare time and has developed into a mighty huntsman and skier.

Father John Cunningham was recently transferred from St. Joseph's, Medford, to St. Mary's, Lynn.

Dr. Allan McCarthy, of Arlington, is in the Army and is stationed in the South.

Chaplain George McHugh sent a note in December to the Alumni office saying: "Had a reunion of B.C. '29 in London recently — Fr. Jim McManus, Dr. Frank Horkins, Dr. Art Morrissey, myself, and an interloper, Fr. George Casey, B.C. '16."

Lieutenant Frank P. Walsh, USA, is stationed in Paris with SHAEF as a press and radio censor.

Lieutenant Ed Waliackas, USNR, is stationed at the Naval Fuel and Net Depot, Melville, Rhode Island.

Captain Ed Murray, USA, is now in Italy after having been in Africa, Corsica and France. When he visited Rome, he had an audience with the Pope.

Sergeant Frank Vossahlik is with Hq. Det., 1st Reg't, Ft. George G. Meade, Maryland.

Lieutenant J. Francis Parrell, AC, is located at Courtland, Alabama.

Private George Donaldson, USA, was home on furlough from California in January.

Father Leo O'Keefe is stationed at Randolph Field, Texas.

THOMAS L. KELLY

16 Fairlawn Avenue, Milton

 Lieutenant Arthur Lohan was married to the former Miss Rosetta Warren on December 23 in the Sacred Heart Church in Newton. Arthur recently returned from action overseas. He received the Purple Heart for wounds received in action in Italy. Among the ushers were Ted Hoppe and Lieutenant Bob Ross of the class of 1940, who has 87 dive bombing missions to his credit. Arthur is now Adjutant of Battalion at Camp Croft. Lowrence V. Donovan is now a staff sergeant in the Infantry in the European theatre. Larry's wife and three daughters live in Milwaukee. The Class of '30 had on excellent turnout for the annual dinner at Frank Geary's restaurant on December 28th. Among those present were Fathers Mulcahy, Ryan, McGonn, McGowan, Sullivan and Morris; Doctors Bill O'Connor and Al Kollan, Ted Hoppe, Jerry and Al McCorthy, John Dwyer, Tom Walsh, Joe Mirley, Charlie Murphy, Perley Payson, Larry Corew, John Hurley, John Robinson, Art Cestaro, Frank Geary, Jack Hayes, Joe Kelley and Tom Kelly.

There were many new faces in the group of active members.

The highlight of the evening was the surprise visit of Major Tom Cavanaugh who has just recently returned from 2½ years overseas in England, Ireland and France. The class members appreciated Tom's story of his experiences in the British Isles and with the front line troops in France. Father John Ryan brought greetings from the faculty of Boston College and also some anecdotes worthy of Mr. Hasenfus' history of B.C. sports. In the 1880's, Fr. Ryan's great uncle was a prime sponsor of bigger and better football teams at B.C. and Fr. Ryan's great aunt decided that the team should have a pennant. In selecting materials, she chose maroon and gold and made the first pennant. And thereby became B.C.'s own Betsy Ross.

Charlie Murphy was recently appointed by the President, Comptroller of Customs for the Port of Boston. Charlie was also appointed by President JJH, chairman of the outing to be held in June by members of the Class of '30 and their better halves. Plans are also maturing for a class retreat at Andover and our 15th year celebration in June.

Lieutenant James Langon, USNR, is the proud father of a daughter and was home briefly at New Year's from Washington, where he is assigned to the Secretary of the Navy's office. He expects to be shipped out shortly. Jim traveled completely around the world during the last national election arranging for Naval personnel to vote.

Sergeant John Lyons, USA, is stationed at Santa Maria, California, where he is in charge of physical training.

Lieutenant John T. O'Connell, USNR, is engaged to Miss Eugenia Lennan of Medford. He is stationed at the Chelsea Naval Hospital.

Father Walter Mullaly, O.S.B., is a student at Catholic University.

Corporal Lew Carey, USA, is stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Si Connor is stationed at Camp Croft, South Carolina.

Father Brendan McNally is doing a little studying at St. Louis University. Home for Christmas was Jim Fay, USNR, situated in Maryland.

Sergeant James F. Rogers, Jr., has been in the Army for over three years. Lt. John Convery, USNR, and Lt. Commander Ed Sliney, USNR, held a reunion in Pearl Harbor about a month ago.

Dave Ronan has received a medical discharge from the Army and is teaching at Cambridge High.

Major Joe Cotter (MC), USA, is a phthalmagist with the Eighth General Dispensary in Italy. Joe has been overseas 30 months and wears the American Defense Ribbon and the Mediterranean Theatre Ribbon with one battle participation star.

135 Medford Street, Arlington

 Charles I. Clough is the proud father of a second son. Mrs. Clough is the former Alice Ame.

Lieutenant Philippe Boas, USA, sent greetings from France in December. He is connected with the Criminal Investigation branch of the Army.

Master Sergeant Jack Harkins, AAF, is in France.

Captain John Finnerty, USA, has been assigned to the Third Service Command Headquarters in Baltimore, for duty with the Prisoner of War branch. A recent and welcome caller was Petty Officer Tom Hardy, who furloughed in Boston for a couple of weeks around Christmas after nearly two years in the Pacific with the Navy. Tom's plans call for him to spend a month or so at the Receiving Station, Treasure Island, before returning to sea.

Congratulations to Very Reverend

Monsignor John J. Wright, D.D., Secretary to the Archbishop, upon his elevation to the role of Prelate "di mantellone" (to be translated in the next issue).

Sergeant Harry Sheehy, the professor and leading undertaker of Charlestown, is now located with the Medical Corps of the US Army in California. Sergeant Joseph McDonald, the farmer and best insurance man in Peabody, is now with the Air Corps in Burma. His wife is carrying on the business until Joe returns.

Chief Warrant Officer Joseph P. Sheo, formerly known as Japey Shea, our old fullback, is flying the mail from London, England, to Cherbourg, Le Havre and Paris. He is a member of the Navy but is attached to the Air Corps for this tedious job. Anyone wanting Japey's APO number, contact John Connelly, '30, Probation Officer, Boston Municipal Court, Boston.

Lieut. Edward A. Gibbons, a former end on the football team and a former State Trooper, who has been overseas for nearly two years, received a direct commission in the field from General Eisenhower. Eddie was a former special investigator for Army Intelligence while in this country.

Staff Sergeant Edward A. Aaron, former halfback and a football official, has been discharged from the Army because of a stomach condition, after three years of service. He is now working for the Veterans Administration as a Contact Representative. Recent writers include Lieut. Henry Leen from the Philippines, Col. Pat Rafferty from the CBI theatre, and Maj. Herbert O'Connor.

It's Major Chessy Antos of the US Army now. Chessy is located in the South Pacific with the Medical Corps. Lieut. Anthony Calabro, USNR, is a battalion commander on the regimental staff of the executive officer of the post at Notre Dame.

William Sectan Downey of Marlboro is a lieutenant (j.g.) in the South Pacific and is the proud father of a ten weeks old daughter that he has not yet seen.

Joseph P. McKenna has been practicing medicine in the French city of Woonsocket for the past eight years. Joe is the father of three children, two boys and one girl.

Recently three of our classmates had a reunion out in California. Lieut. Frank Curtin, and Lieut. (j.g.) Benjamin Cane are stationed in San Diego, and Lieut. (j.g.) Ed Hurley is stationed at San Bruno, California. Major John Dwyer, AAF, was recently promoted to his present rank. He is somewhere in the South Pacific.

Sgt. George Burke, USA, has been overseas for two years and is now in the Philippines.

Sgt. William Meade, a former chemist with the Gillette Safety Razor Company, is now located on the fighting front in Belgium.

Lieut. George W. Shinney, USNR, was located at the Naval Air Station at Hingham, Massachusetts, until he was recently hospitalized at the Chelsea Naval Hospital. George was in charge of one of those blimps that sailed frequently over this area. He is now recuperating at his home in Monument Square in Charlestown.

Lieut. (j.g.) Paul McSweeney, USNR, has been stationed at Portland, Ore.

Frank Connor announces the birth of a seven pound baby girl; don't give us any of that "cigar shortage" stuff, Frank.

This seems to be the girl season. Yeoman First Class John Carr became the proud daddy of a young lady in August.

Warrant Officer Charlie "Sparks" Quinn of the Merchant Marine is a radio operator on a vessel sailing out of Boston. Charlie is very dashing and debonair indeed with the brand new decoration he is sporting on his upper lip.

Leatherneck Henry Fitzgerald is hereby officially promoted to first lieutenant with apologies of your correspondent for underrating him in the last NEWS. Henry has been assigned to a new Marine aircraft carrier unit operating from Santa Barbara, California, where Lieut. Colonel Johnny Dobbins already is hard at work organizing the new group. It is also bruited about that Captain Joe Paul, our third Devil Dog, is headed for the same type of job. Harry Doyle should warn Hirohito what is in store for him.

Lieut. Harry Braugham was home on furlough recently. Henry's teaching Meteorology to the soldiers at Greenville, Mississippi. E. B. Rideout take notice.

Dan Dimond is the proud daddy of another boy.

John "Tubber" O'Brien announces the arrival of a baby girl in his household.

John Hanrahan breaks a long silence to write that he is attached to a Cavalry Reconnaissance unit stationed in England, where he expects to start teaching German classes in the near future.

After taking care of the landing situation in the European theatre, Lieutenant Terry Griffin, USNR, has shifted the site of his activities to Hollandia, New Guinea, where he is commander of a flotilla of LSTs.

Back home after months of gruelling service in the Pacific is Luke Raddy, who is now a full lieutenant.

Denny Ryan has been promoted to the rank of captain in the 8th Air Force stationed in England.

We are indebted to Mrs. Fred Cassidy for news that Fred is now stationed in India with an Army Air Force Intelligence unit. The Cassidy household is completed by two boys, Freddie and Kevin.

Congratulations are in order for Joe King who now has a daughter to "queen" it over his three boys.

We are happy to hear that Lieutenant Fred McCabe is back on active service after recovering from injuries received in Navy landings and is stationed in Pennsylvania. Fred recently joined the ranks of benedicts.

Lieutenant (j.g.) Peter Fallon is presently stationed in Newfoundland.

Our sympathy goes out to Johnny Moynahan, whose younger brother Paul, '35, has been reported missing in action in Europe.

Congratulations to Eddie McCrensky on his new appointment with the Civil Service Commission in Washington.

Captain Vincent A. Andaloro (MC), USA, was recently appointed to his present rank. He is in France.

As this issue goes to press a Class Dinner is planned for February 8 at the Hotel Lenox. When this issue reaches your hungry hands, the dinner and consequently your hunger will probably be history. Making use for the first and only time that I can recall of that future perfect tense, which was one of the joys of those conjugation-happy days of '30-'33, may I close with the hope and prediction that a "right good time will have been had" by all.

DANIEL I. CRONIN

3 Laird Road, West Medford

 The sympathy of the class is extended to Fr. Frank Doherty and Bob O'Riley, whose fathers passed away recently, and to Ed Kelly of Brighton on the loss of his mother.

Captain Timothy L. Curran, AAF, is with the 15th Air Force somewhere in Italy, and has been overseas for 22 months. The unit for which he is a flight surgeon is one of the oldest in overseas service, participating in every campaign in the Mediterranean. Walter Dray was commissioned a second lieutenant in December after graduating from the Army Transportation Corps School in New Orleans. Bob Sullivan, Cambridge attorney, is in Italy with the USAAF. Bob has just been promoted to the rank of captain. He is married to the former Miss Lillian Burns of Dorchester. The O'Connell brothers, Lenahan and Joe, are now both stationed overseas.

CHARLES W. O'BRIEN

1561 Centre Street, Roslindale.

 Private Christopher Fay, USA, is a tabulating machine operator in France. He went overseas last July. Father John Daunis, a chaplain in the Army, is stationed in Persia.

Lenny is a lieutenant in the Judge Advocate's office in New Guinea and Joe is a major in the Judge Advocate's office in New Zealand. Joe was married during the past summer to Miss Susan O'Brien of Fort Worth, Texas, a Manhattanville grad.

Lieut. (j.g.) Jerry O'Connor, is also in Washington with the Bureau of Personnel, office of Distribution.

WILLIAM J. FITZSIMONS

40 Court St., Boston 8

❧ Christmas greetings came in December from Captain John Nicholson, DC, USA, from somewhere in Germany.

Sergeant Edward O'Brien, USA, is engaged to Miss Gertrude M. Kinsman of Roxbury. He is serving overseas. Another engagement, that of Lieut. Francis Dinan, USNR, to Miss Janet Payson (Lasell Junior College) of Millis. Lieut. Dinan has been stationed at Norfolk, Virginia.

Captain Edmund Curry, USMC, was married in December to the former Miss Frances Casey of Belmont. He recently returned from the Pacific where he served for 25 months, participating in battles at New Georgia, Guadalcanal, Bougainville and Guam, and has once again reported for duty at Pearl Harbor.

Lieut. Paul Good, USA, is doing intelligence work in the European theatre.

Captain David I. Connolly, brother of our famous debater, Edward Connolly, '31, both graduates of the Harvard Law School, is now located in the Philippines with the Army Intelligence. Dave is married, and his wife and child are located in Rockland, Mass. He has been in the Army almost five years, and has been overseas since April, 1943. Anybody wanting to write to Dave, get in touch with his father, Postmaster of Boston, Patrick J. Connolly.

Sergeant Charles Greeley is a member of the US Army Air Corps and when last seen was walking around the Pentagon Building, Arlington, Va., asking for definite information on how to get out of this building, and start out for Bunker Hill on a furlough.

Rev. Peter Reilly, M.M., is not a Jap prisoner, but is safe in the mountains of South China.

Lieut. Randy Wise, USNR, has been stationed at Hart's Island, N. Y. Drop us a line giving us your name, home and business address, telephone number, occupation, and a little information about yourself or your family. Also, any information about our classmates.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Henry Foley on the death of his father in December. Also to Joe Foley of Natick on the death in service of his brother, Captain Leonard Foley.

Lieut. Frank Good, USA, is assigned to the Counter Intelligence Corps. Frank's experience as an FBI agent assigned to counter espionage work has well qualified him for his present important work.

Lieut. Edward J. O'Brien, SC, USNR, has participated in two European invasions. When in Oran he met Lieut. John Danelan, USNR, '37, and Ensign Rony Wise, USNR, and Captain Fred Roche, USA, '36. In Scotland he met Lieut. John P. Gately, USNR, '38.

Chaplain Jack Dunne is serving with our troops on the western front.

Lieut. Bill Landrey, USA, is in Italy. Before leaving the States, Bill married the former Rita Dwyer of Belmont. He was in the North African campaign before going to Italy.

We learned recently that a baby was born to the wife of the late Lieut. Bernie Maynahan, last September at approximately the time he was killed by shellfire in Italy.

We shall remember in our prayers Lieut Paul Maynahan who is missing in action, along with our other classmates in military and naval service. Our class retreat at Campion Hall has been postponed from April to June 8-10 when we shall make the retreat with members of the other anniversary classes. Make reservations early. John McCurdy is the class chairman.

THOMAS H. D. MAHONEY

51 Ellery Street, Cambridge

❧ The members of the class join in expressing their deep sympathy to the family of the late Father William Hayes. Bill was one of the best liked fellows in the class and his sudden passing came as a shock to all. Requiescat in pace!

Lt. Com. Fred Moore, USN, was a recent visitor to Boston. Fred was home on a short furlough prior to reassignment following the completion of arduous service as a flight squadron leader. His unit was in the thick of much of the recent action in the Pacific.

Capt. John Paget, AUS, MC, is on active duty in Belgium, and has been extremely busy since the late German attack.

The news that Father Robert Sullivan has been released by our forces from a Japanese prison camp in Manila was joyfully received by his many friends in the class.

Congratulations are in order for Lt. Bob O'Hayre, USCGR, who was recently decorated for his part in the big invasion of France.

His old side-kick, Rep. Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr., has been the author of considerable legislation "on the hill" of late, including a measure which will deny "Cambridge persons who abuse animals and are convicted of cruelty" a dog license.

Lt. (j. g.) Mark Dalton, USNR, is on duty in the European theatre of operations.

Lt. George M. C. Goodwin, USNR, stationed at the Navy Bureau of Personnel in Washington, was home a few weeks ago.

DONALD R. McARDLE
46 Newcastle Road, Brighton

 The deepest sympathy of the class is extended to the relatives of our former classmate, Pfc. Joseph Kendall, who was killed in action in France in November.

Fred Anderson reports from the South Pacific that Warren Cox and Bob Lee recently had a get-together in the Pacific area. Let's hope that the boys exchanged many fond memories during their visit together. Warren is now in the Philippines.

Ensign Art Tisdale, now a Supply Officer on a Destroyer Escort in the South Pacific, was home on leave in December, and took good advantage of his time by becoming engaged. Congratulations from all of us, Art. Gang, we have a special note of congratulations and best wishes for Ensign and Mrs. Gerard Finnerty who became proud parents of a baby girl, Laurie Jean, in January. Jerry will always have the distinction and honor of being the first "Dad" in the Class of '44. We're all happy for you, Jerry, and are glad that you could be home on leave shortly after your daughter was born. Jerry has now returned to duty on a Destroyer Escort in the Atlantic.

Lieut. Bill McInnis has recently been transferred to the Air Transport Command and is on his way to India. We know India is a big place, but let's hope that Bill meets Joe Kelly in his travels.

Ensign Lea Wilson was home on a 30-day leave in January and February. Lea is great and sends his best wishes to all our boys.

Lieut. Ed "Terrible Tim" Geary, USMCR, has been in on many "shows" out in the South Pacific. "Tim" commands a platoon of nine Amphibious Tracs and is helping with the battle of the Pacific.

Staff Sgt. John Ogle is now working with the Finance Division in England. John reports that he met Bob Colbert aboard the ship that conveyed his group overseas. The best part of it was, too, that they met on Christmas Day, when both were on their way to Rosary services.

FRANCIS THOMPSON: IN HIS PATHS

Terence L. Connolly, S.J. Bruce 1944

The Catholic reading public in general, and Boston College men in particular, should welcome the Reverend Terence L. Connolly's most recent book, "Francis Thompson: In His Paths." Long recognized as the foremost American authority on Thompson, Father Connolly has now produced a work that should take its place as a companion volume to his scholarly "Poems of Francis Thompson."

Too many intelligent persons, and especially too many graduates of Catholic colleges, are unaware of the substance, the beauty, the spirituality of Thompson's works. Too many think of Thompson as the author of but one poem, "The Hound of Heaven." True, it would be glory enough for any man to be acclaimed for the philosophic insight and the majestic phrasing of what the late Professor William Lyon Phelps declared to be "one of the great poems of the twentieth century." But Thompson has given us much more. He has given us a plenitude of verse that is notable for both content and form; verse that varies from the simplicity of his "Ex Ore Infantium" to the magnificence of the "Orient Ode," "An Anthem of Earth," and "The Hound of Heaven"; verse in which, as Father Connolly remarks, "the fundamental truths of the Catholic faith were exquisitely fused with inse emotion, flawless expression, and mastery of technique."

Fortunately for the art of literature — and more fortunately for the genius of Catholic literature — Father Connolly's early study of Thompson excited an interest so sympathetic, so ardent, so scholarly, and so fruitful that today the name Terence L. Connolly must be linked with that of Wilfrid Meynell in the hearts of all who know and love Francis Thompson. That number will inevitably be increased by the circulation of Father Connolly's book.

So easy, graceful, and genial is the style that one feels almost as if he were by the side of the author as he visits the persons and places intimately associated with the life of the poet. Yet the book is far more than a pleasant travelogue or a series of character sketches. It is a glowing revelation of the personality of one who as a student knew disappointment and failure; one who suffered a "nightmare-time" of destitution in the cheerless streets of London; one who was rescued from his tragic plight in a manner so unexpected, so dramatic, so poignant, that one can readily concur in Father Connolly's belief that the happy event was "chiefly the result of the intercession of the Mother of Sorrows"; one who was redeemed from misery by the solicitude of the lovable Wilfrid Meynell and his family; one whose subsequent years amid the consoling peace of Storrington and Pantasoph gave us a wealth of precious verse, the coinage of a great soul inspired by Christ and His Blessed Mother.

All these phases of Thompson's life are vividly depicted by Father Connolly. Skillfully and appropriately blended into the narrative are quotations from the poet, a device that prompts an even more appreciative re-reading of many of Thompson's masterpieces. Another satisfying feature of the book is the author's incidental but accurate appraisal of various phases of English history affecting the Church. Apart from the author's detailed and superlative characterization of Thompson, the most memorable passages are those in which he describes his visits with the aging but still mentally alert Wilfrid Meynell, the instrument of Thompson's rehabilitation.

The book deserves wide circulation, not only because of the merit of its subject, but also because of its scholarly style.
